WHAT: Girl Talk and Miss Teen USA have teamed up to positively communicate the importance of making good choices to reach your goals to middle and high school girls. Miss Teen USA will visit four local Girl Talk Chapters to talk about the importance of goals and dreams. Through a hands on activity, she will also discuss her own goals and how she plans to reach them.

Girl Talk is an Atlanta based, national non-profit student-to-student mentoring program that pairs middle school girls with high school girls who serve as mentors. Weekly meetings are held after school, during which the high school Leaders conduct lessons that address issues middle school girls face every day. Girl Talk exists to help young girls build self-esteem, leadership skills and recognize the importance of community service.

The Miss Universe Organization, Producers of the MISS UNIVERSE®, MISS USA® and MISS TEEN USA® pageants, is a Donald J. Trump and NBC Universal joint venture. Utilizing its nationwide grassroots infrastructure, the Miss Universe Organization is committed to increasing awareness of non-profits including Girl Talk, Best Buddies, National Breast Cancer Coalition, Susan G. Koman Breast Cancer Foundation, Ovarian Cancer Research Fund and Gilda's Club.
